Partido Lakas ng Masa (PLM) and Krusada Kontra Dynasty -- both members of the broad People's Initiative Coalition Against Dynasty -- launched the opening salvo of the signature drive to end political dynasty once and for all. The signature drive is part of the people's initiative action guaranteed in the Philippine constitution aimed at enacting laws blocked by the Senate and Congress. The signature drive is supported by a number of organizations, including the Catholic Bishops Conference of the Philippines. The campaign aims to secure the signatures of 12% of total registered voters representing 3% voters in each legislative districts.
